Good of the Order:

Brother Floyd Demmy treated us to a telling of his stories from World War II in the European Theater. Just like the attendees at Floyd's recent talk to the Central Penn WWII Roundtable in Hummelstown, everybody was ready to hear just one more story!

Well done again, Brother Floyd and thank you for your service!

The meeting was closed by Senior Vice Commander Smith at 4:15 PM

Brothers and sisters in distress

Brother Dave is out and about like a young Andrew Curtin following his recent surgery.

Brother Robert Manning reports his wife is making progress after her recent concern. Lot of time and hard work to recuperate after an affliction. Best wishes Mrs. Manning.

Brother Floyd's war bride of nearly 70 years passed onto Heaven Monday July 14. To Brother Floyd, David, Dave, and Jon Demmy, the officers and Brothers of Camp 15 offer our very sincere condolences to you and the family.

On July 5th 2014 there was a parade and ceremony for the Dauphin County Hero's Grove ground breaking. This was held at Brightbill Park in Lower Paxton. Hartranft Camp 15 took part in the parade and had a display table set up at the park. The ground breaking is for an amphitheater to be built in honor of veterans, first responders and law enforcement personnel. There seemed to be a very good turnout. Our own State Rep Ron Marsico was master of ceremonies. He has been a very strong supporter of veterans, first defenders and law enforcement personnel for a number of years. Members of Camp 15 who participated in the event were Commander Debo, Greg Kline, and Tom Bowman, Mike Proper, Dave Demmy, Floyd Demmy and myself. Hope I did not miss anyone DJK else.

Treasurer's report as of June

Checkbook balance as of July 15 is $1818. $818 is available for expenditures approved by Camp council.

Hot weather humor

A coach [little league] liked to reward his team with $2 bills after a hard played game. Anyhow the season had ended and he had a stack of $2 bills remaining. So he went to a big box retailer to buy some items. When presenting the $2 bills the cashier called the manager. The manager then called the police, who in turn called the secret service. The secret service confirmed to all the other parties that the $2 bill was legal tender that was no longer being printed, but it's acceptable as money.

Heroes Grove of Dauphin County by Greg Kline

Harrisburg's Camp

15, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War was honored to participate in the groundbreaking activities for Heroes Grove in Lower Paxton Township, Saturday July 5, 2014.

The Camp previously purchased a paver to support this community site. When completed, the amphitheater will be used for community events to honor emergency responders, veterans and law enforcement personnel. I'd like to thank the following Brothers for marching in the pre-ceremony parade and/or helping to staff our booth at the festival: Scott Debo. Tom Bowman, David Demmy, and Mike Proper. Two of our WWII members, each a WWII veteran, were among the audience for the ceremonies: Dave Klinepeter and Floyd Demmy.

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTOR/GAR HISTORIAN

By Dave Klinepeter

Another Memorial Day has come and gone. Over all, I was well pleased with the response of the general public. Yes, we have a long way to go yet, but more folks seem to be participating in veteran affairs. Like a number of other members of Hartranft Camp 15 SUV I had a full week end. On Thursday Sept 22. thanks to PCC Commander Brother Greg Klein, I gave a talk at the Susquehanna Round Table in Sunbury on the Grand Army of the Republic and Kindred Veteran organizations after the Civil War. On Saturday some members of Camp 15 gathered for breakfast, than to Harrisburg Cemetery to help Post 27 American Legion and others place flags on veteran graves. I was disappointed to hear my ole WW11 buddy, Les McClure, was injured and was unable to participate. As far as I know this is the first time he has missed since 1946. I left early to go to the Midland Cemetery in Steelton for Memorial Day services. Governor Curtin was an invited guest. I found out from Barbara Barksdale, the president of their association, that the attending color guard (3rd USCT reenactors from Phila) have been coming there for 24 years. She has been instrumental, over the years in bringing the cemetery back from an overgrown tree and brush area. On Sunday my trip was to Indiantown Gap National Cemetery, stopped to visit with my wife, than attend the special memorial services. As you drive in the entrance there are several thousand small American Flags on each side, than there are large casket size flags spaced all through the grounds. It is awe inspiring to see so many veterans of our various wars. The program was well attended. After the opening the master of ceremonies introduced the numerous honored quests seated in the front. Of course everyone politely clapped each time. He then mentioned there was a special person in the audience he wanted to introduce. This WW 11 veteran would be 100 in August, had landed on Omaha Beach on D-Day, an active Life member of the VFW. Everyone stood up at once and must have clapped for 5 minutes. The veteran's name is Daniel Lucis. He stated, he expected to see all of us there again next year. I had a chance to meet him after the program. I also had the pleasure of meeting Helen Sajer, President of the Pa Wounded Warriors, Inc. They help veterans who are in need. If anyone is interested go to info@pawoundedwarriors.org . On Monday my journey took me to Gettysburg for a carriage ride with President Lincoln in the Memorial Day parade. The master of ceremony at the National Cemetery, Barry Decker, was a past member of Camp 15 and now member of Camp 112 of Gettysburg. I did meet several member of Camp 15 in Gettysburg. I also know a number of our members were in numerous Memorial Day services. Should you be interested there are numerous pictures and stories about Camp 15 participating in Memorial Day services over the years, just go to the back issues of the newsletter and check May and June issues! HARPERS WEEKLY Saturday June 4, 1864 TOUCH THEM TENDERLY O Touch them tenderly; they fell In the harsh storm of shot and shell, When, like a vast plutonian bell, Rang the resounding air To artillerean thunder-strokes, Shivering a chained nation's yokes, The steeping pines and spreading oaks Fell with the soldiers there sponge the brave blood from Wadsworth's scars Through which his spirit fled From honor here*to glory where The banner blue in fields of air Is bright with stars forever fair Without the stripes of red.

Touch tenderly the living brave: Blessed be the gentle hand that saves A hero! while our banner waves The loyal heart will beat With quicker pulses where they tread. Bind softly the poor wounds that bled Where the wild flowers their odors shed. Making the free air sweet.

Touch tenderly the gallant men Who smile at their red wounds, and then Ask to be ordered back again, to join the fight anew; To go where Grant and Hancock lead; To follow Butler, Burnside, Meade; To watch and march and charge and bleed Where waves the starry blue.

Touch tenderly the man whose life Is dear to mother, sweet-heart, wife, Whose blood was poured out in the strife Of liberty with crime; For braver than the Spartan band Are the defenders of the land, Who live a living bulwark stand, Each crowned with deeds sublime.

150 ANNIVERSARY OF THE CIVIL WAR 1864

There were many small battles and actions and several larger ones. General Grant had many men and supplies while Lee could not replace the men lost nor get enough supplies. According to Civil War Times and other publications there will be numerous events listed for the 150th. The National Parks, Historical Societies, Civil War Round Tables and other groups will have speakers, and events during the summer. Check them out.
