Brother Baker displayed a lithograph Civil War roster of the PA 79th Division. His great grandfather Erb was a member of that group. In wonderful condition and framed, it was purchased on E-Bay. He showed two family photographs taken at Devils Den. They were taken at the same location but different generations of family members. Hopefully, he can find the exact location and photograph the present generations of his family!

Patriotic Instructor Klinepeter gave another interesting presentation with items for sale and give-a-ways. He continually keeps the camp updated with historical dates and newspaper items and his personal stories. Thanks, Dave.

The meeting closed at 15:16.

A number of years ago Hartranft Camp 15 Sons of Union Veterans had a Sons of Veterans Reserve organization (SVR). They were the 6th Infantry Field Music (Fife and Drum Corps) and Company D, (the Rifle Squad) of the Penna Brigade.

THE DRUM CORPS IN GAR PARADE 1936 WASHINGTON DC

The SUV is the main organization and the SVR is the quasi-military organization of the SUV. Not too long after Major John H. Runkle, leader of the Drum Corps passed away, the Drum Corps and Company D went out of existence. I was in the Fife and Drum Corps in the 1940s-1960s. Because of the number of new members I have been asked to give a talk on how things were in Camp 15 in those days. I will bring a number of pictures, not just Memorial Day ones but other places we went. I will also bring several other items for show and tell!

While reading the June/July issue of the VFW magazine I came across a small article that upset me. In the letters to the Editor, a short one, from James Berry of Kempner, TX. "A student at Texas Tech in Lubbock said that the Japanese could not be blamed for bombing Pearl Harbor because we dropped the atomic bomb on them first, starting World War II. My daughter corrected the student, was written up as a "disturbing influence in the classroom" and given an F for a grade". God help us!

A FEW DATES TO REMEMBER

Nov 6th 1860 Abraham Lincoln elected the 16th President of the United States of America

Nov 8th 1864 Abraham Lincoln was elected to a second term sealing the fate of the Confederacy.

Nov 10th 1775 U.S. Marine Corps was established.

Nov 11th 1865 Closing of CAMP CURTIN the largest military camp in the east during the Civil War. Over 300,000 men went through on the way to fight the war. It served as a training camp, as a hospital and also a prisoner of war camp.

Nov 11 1918 On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918 World War I ended.

Nine million soldiers died, 21 million were wounded and at least 5 million civilians were killed.

It was the "WAR TO END ALL WARS". As far as I know there is one American Doughboy living today.

Nov 11th 1919 President Wilson proclaims the first Armistice Day with the following, "To us in America, the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has Freed us and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of the nations". In 1938 Congress passed legislation that made Nov 11th a legal Federal holiday. A bill was pushed through Congress and President Eisenhower signed it into law on May 26, 1954 and it has been known as VETERANS DAY since.

Nov 19th 1863 Abraham Lincoln's Gettysburg address at the National Cemetery

Nov 19th 2009 Dedication Day the 146th Anniversary of the Gettysburg Address 9:30AM will be a wreath laying ceremony at the Soldiers' National Monument in the Soldiers' National Cemetery followed at 10:00AM a Dedication Day Ceremony. Speaker Richard Dreyfuss, Academy Award winning actor, Lincoln portrayer (Jim Getty, member of Camp 112) will recite the Gettysburg Address. He will be introduced by Ward Lemon, portrayed by David Klinepeter. There will be a performance by "The President's Own" United States Marine Band". There will be a Naturalization ceremony presented by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services.

Editor's Note: Smithsonian magazine, October 2008

With the passing of 108-year-old Harry Landis earlier this month in Florida, America has only one known living veteran of World War I remaining: 107-year-old Frank Buckles of Charles Town, W.Va. Buckles is reportedly in good health, exercising every day and even conducting media interviews. But the day he passes away, it will be the end of a generation that fought in the trenches of France, and advanced across the bloody nightmare of "No Man's Land," to make the world safe for democracy.

The National World War I Museum in Kansas City, Mo., is already making plans to commemorate the final passing of an entire generation of war veterans. By coincidence, the museum is located in the home state of Harry Landis and Frank Buckles. No doubt the museum will soon be gearing up to celebrate the centennial of World War I, which now looms just over the horizon in 2014.

Frank Buckles, born in Bethany, Mo., in 1901, had to lie about his age to join the Army, get through basic training, and make it to his overseas assignment before the war ended. At the time, men and women had to be at least 21 to enlist;

Buckles was only 16. He served as a driver in the war and remained stationed in Germany until 1920. As a civilian working in the Philippines for a U.S. shipping line, Buckles was captured by the Japanese and spent more than three years in a prison camp.

The last living American veteran of World War I, Buckles joined The American Legion in 1931 and has remained a lifetime member.

Likewise: "As the last of his kind, Buckles receives a lot of mail from strangers, writing to thank him for his service. He responds to all of it, with the help of his daughter, Susannah, 53. "I know that I have an obligation," he says, "to keep the [next generation] aware that we had a World War I'."

More Deadly than Bullets: Illness & Disease in the Civil War

A New Exhibit - Presented by: Highmark Blue Shield

Illness and disease killed more men in both armies than wounds suffered on the battlefield. This exhibit will examine the enormous impact that illness and disease had on the armies of the North and South. The exhibit will focus on answering key questions, such as: Why did so many soldiers become sick and die? What was done to address the problem? What types of illness and diseases were prevalent and how were they treated, if at all? Lastly, the exhibit will also discuss the role of the Civil War surgeons and doctors, as well as male and female nurses.

Worth displaying again for our members who do not have access to a computer to review previously shared data. Bricks on display at National Civil War Museum which are associated with Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War and Camp 15!

Our newest Brother in Camp 15 is Duke Hall who is on station in Afghanistan!

Notice: There is no PX in Afghanistan! No chuck wagon! No Sutler! Just dirt and dust and fleas! The few times the troops get back to a rest area to clean up, recuperate, and restock, whatever items were available are depleted. Brothers and sisters of camp 15, lets roll out the charity part of our Order's Principles: Fraternity, Charity, and Loyalty, and bring donations to camp meeting for our men and women on the ground far from home.

Here is a list of things our troops need and desire: (note No Lotions due to climate)

Shaving needs - disposable razors, shave crème

Deodorant, Shampoo (especially the ones combined with conditioner like Pert), toothpaste and toothbrushes, small bottles of mouthwash

Foot powder and salve for all foot problems (no liquids, powders, sprays or quick dry gels/crèmes)

Flea Collars (large sizes), flea powder and spray (the sand over there is loaded with fleas and they wear these around their legs, arms and necks)

White cotton socks - Some of the light haired/skinned guys need sun block (the daytime temperature there is often 120 degrees with night temperatures dropping into the high 50's.

Sports and game magazines (no xxx)

Hand wipes (individually packaged) they need a lot of these!

Cards, games, puzzles, and any kind of entertainment that can be used in confined spaces!

Envelopes, writing paper and pens
Pens and paper to give to the Afghan children (they prize these greatly)

Beef Jerky (a big favorite) and other salty snacks

Dried fruit snack packs, breakfast, and snack bars

Throat lozenges and hard candies

Do not send liquids of any kind. Sometimes it is possible to sneak a few pork rinds through that they like, but they are not on the acceptable list (because Muslim's do not approve of pork). Nothing containing alcohol except very weak mouthwash in the small bottles.

Duke is grandson of Past Pennsylvania Department Commander Lee Walters and Past President of the DUVCW, Charlotte Walters.

Here is Duke's address for you to send items and a note of good cheer and blessings to him and his fellow troopers.

If you may be in Gettysburg on Thursday evening November 19, 2009 stop by and help:

Gettysburg Camp #112 of the Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War annually raises money for Operation Ensuring Christmas. This is a charitable organization that provides Christmas gifts and other services to the orphans of U.S. Soldiers killed while serving their Country. In doing this we not only let the children that have suffered this terrible loss know that a grateful nation has not forgotten them, but allows them to know that they are not alone.

Since Camp #112 began supporting this charity two years ago they have raised over $2,250 for this cause. This year Camp #112 asks that you help us support these children by coming out to Friendly's restaurant in Gettysburg on Thursday, November 19th (Dedication Day). During the dinner hours that evening, Friendly's is donating 20% of their proceeds to Camp #112 who in turn is donating the full amount to Operation Ensuring Christmas.

Please come out for dinner at Friendly's in Gettysburg when you come to town on the 19th to help support this worthy cause.

Many thanks,
